OVERVIEW

The 5/8" wide tubular lanyards are comfortable to wear and designed almost like a familiar tube sock. Stitched all the way around with a little bit of stretch they feel nice and cool to wear. The breakaway design is a safety feature allowing the lanyard to snap apart and be snapped back together if it is grabbed and pulled or caught. The detachable design makes it easy to keep your ID or other accessories close at hand without taking the lanyard off.

KEY FEATURES

- Format: 5/8" (16 mm) wide flat tubular lanyard, stitched all the way around with a little bit of stretch.
- Attachment: Detachable bulldog clip hooks to any ID badge holder or slot punched photo ID.
- Safety: Breakaway design snaps apart if the lanyard is grabbed, pulled or caught, and snaps back together.
- Convenience: Detach the clip to use your ID without taking the lanyard off.
