OVERVIEW

The AH-075 is a rigid open-faced single-card badge holder for one standard credit card sized ID card or access credential. The open front keeps the card face visible, while the solid back and rigid plastic construction help protect the card from bending, snapping, and daily handling damage. This single-card holder can be worn vertically or horizontally using the built-in slot holes. It attaches to lanyards, badge reels, strap clips, swivel hooks, and other standard badge accessories.

KEY FEATURES

- Holds one standard ID card: Open-faced rigid holder carries one CR80 credit card sized ID card or access credential.
- Rigid card protection: Hard plastic construction helps protect cards from bending, snapping, and daily wear.
- Vertical or horizontal wear: Slot holes support lanyards, badge reels, strap clips, swivel hooks, and other badge accessories.
- Quick card access: Open-face design keeps the card visible and easy to remove when needed.
