OVERVIEW

This heavy duty breakaway lanyard is built for carrying ID badges, badge holders, keys, key fobs, and other small items with a ring or clip point on a thicker round neck cord. The detachable key ring and metal J-hook let users remove keys or credentials without taking off the whole lanyard. The safety breakaway connector separates if the lanyard is pulled or snagged, then snaps back together for reuse. An adjustable diamond slide helps shorten or lengthen the neck strap for a better fit over uniforms, jackets, or work clothing.
